Dear Parent,

Greetings from SBD International School, Bhadrak.

Sub: Monthly Circular – November 2018

On behalf of SBDIS, I convey my greetings and wishes to you and your family on the auspicious occasion of Diwali & Kartik Purnima. May these festivals bring you lots of joy and herald a world of endless possibilities for you and your family. We owe our success story to you all for we believe that you have understood our vision and done your bit to help us translate the dreams and aspirations of the students and parents into reality. Your unflinching support, the desire to propagate the mission of the school and your willingness to walk hand in hand with us have made all the difference.

Well, now there is winter in air. November has set in and with the onset of the month, a series of academic and extra-curricular activities are on the cards. One such activity that stands tall among all other activities is JDM Talent Hunt Programme. It offers excellent scope and opportunities to the students of different age groups to participate, compete with best in the district, unearth their hidden talents and aspire for recognition. In a nutshell, It has lent wings to the dreams and aspirations of kids and youngsters who want to make it big in their chosen fields of interests. I would request the parents to encourage the children to take part in Talent Hunt Programme aimed at harnessing the latent potential in them. I believe the information stated will help you prepare your children to face the challenges with confidence and courage.
